THE TOLEDO MUSEUM OF ART

FOUNDED BY EDWARD DRUMMOND LIBBEY

NUMBER 124

FEBRUARY 1951

THIS PICTORIAL REVIEW OF THE YEAR 1950 appears as the Toledo Museum of Art is embarking upon the commemoration of its Fiftieth Anniversary. It has already held the opening Exhibition of a year-long celebration, Art in Crystal—Libbey Glass, 1818-1951, honoring the Founder of the Art Museum and of the glass industry in Toledo. It has announced the most impressive exhibition ever to visit the United States, the Art Treasures from Vienna, which will be shown from May 27 to June 24, 1951. Other showings will soon be announced.

COLLECTIONS

In 1950 Art Museum collections have grown substantially, — particularly in quality — as will become apparent as the most important additions are placed on exhibition. In quantity, the tabulation is:

28 Paintings in oil	48 Pieces of glass
19 Paintings in gouache and water color	37 Oriental objects
1 Pastel	1 Greek Vase
29 Prints	1 Italian Majolica Vase
3 Sculptures	4 Rare books and MSS
1 Egyptian sculpture	14 Medieval enamels and carved ivories

In 1950 THE ART MUSEUM

HELD 15 Major exhibitions 11 Secondary exhibitions
8 Showings of work of Toledo artists

MADE 33 Loans to other exhibitions

MADE 44 Loans to Toledo institutions

HAD 18 Life Members 34 Sustaining 1011 Active 280 Associate

HAD an attendance of 114,392 Children 139,473 Adults 253,865 Total

HAD Local and area publicity 8,894 inches National publicity 1,324 inches

ART MUSEUM COLLECTIONS are a source of never-ending enjoyment and enlightenment to the people of Toledo. Among the most popular is the Egyptian gallery. Below, Mrs. Lela Miner, her daughter, Mrs. Freeman June, and her children, all of Bowling Green, are interested in the painting by Jasper F. Cropsey, of the Valley of Wayne County, Pennsylvania, in the Maurice A. Scott Gallery.

All photographs by Hauger and Dorf, except p. 7 and p. 10

THE FIFTEENTH CENTURY Madonna and Child by the Italian master, Rossellino in the Edward Drummond Libbey Gallery is a focal point for many talks, tours and lectures. On this occasion it was a group from the Women's Educational Club, photographed with it.

THE DEGAS EXHIBITION was built around the recently acquired bronze, his Horse Galloping on Right Foot (in the foreground), the long-owned pastel, Dancers (in the distance at the left) and the Dancers at the Bar, given in 1950 by Mrs. C. Lockhart McKelvy. The bronze, Study in Nude (near the Dancers) was also added to the Toledo Art Museum Collections.

THE MODERN HOUSE COMES ALIVE, a showing of small models cut to display their interiors, included also samples of the fabrics used, harmonious paintings, sculpture, and pottery.

IMPROVEMENTS PLANNED FOR 1940, and delayed by America's entry into World War II, were started in time to be continued despite the outbreak of the Korean episode. A substantial portion of these will not be visible to Art Museum visitors, for they are concerned with the modernization of the heating and ventilating plant, the last word in efficiency when installed twenty years ago. While summer cooling will not be attempted for the present, space for the necessary equipment has been provided for installation when funds therefor may become available from some presently unknown source. More pressing is the necessity for conserving heat and the introduction of humidity in the winter. Steam jet injectors have been provided for the air supply to the galleries, and the cleaning of the air by electrical precipitation has been added to all ventilating systems. Return air ducts have been built in the attic, insulated with Fiberglas, to avoid the waste of heat. Fiberglas ceilings have been installed over all the main floor space which will remain unfinished.

More noticeable will be the completion of the center unfinished space in the west wing, frequently used in its semi-finished state for exhibition, and the building of four new galleries adjacent to the north side of the west wing. These will all be in readiness for the Exhibition of the Imperial Treasures from Vienna, to be shown from May 27 to June 24, 1951.

THE MOST INSPIRING MOMENT of the year is 8:45 A.M. on the first Saturday after Labor Day. Then the doors swing open to admit the hundreds of children, eager, after a summer's recreation, to take up or resume study in the Saturday classes in art and music.

ADULT CLASSES learn from lecture and demonstration, as well as from their own efforts to combine line, form and color for pleasing effect.

ART MUSEUM COLLECTIONS and temporary exhibitions are sources of never-ending inspiration to students of all ages.

SEVENTH AND EIGHTH GRADE Choruses and Orchestras of the schools make an annual appearance in the Peristyle, an event equally thrilling to those on stage and in the audience.

Photographs by Goon and Otis

CHOIRS OF MANY DENOMINATIONS unite for the Festival of Church Music, presented in the Peristyle under sponsorship of the Toledo Council of Churches.

THE PERISTYLE is available for assemblies of a civic or educational character upon the payment by the sponsoring organization of the costs of opening and operating it. Among those availing themselves of it in 1950 was the Red Cross. The opening meeting of the annual campaign was addressed by General of the Armies George C. Marshall.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS

MANY DISTINGUISHED VISITORS from abroad as well as from other parts of the United States visit the Art Museum each year. Two groups of German museum officials, in this country under the government's cultural exchange program, were sent to Toledo by the Department of State. Below are Dr. Max Loehr and Dr. Hans Schonberger, representing Munich museums, inspecting a Chinese scroll painting with J. Arthur MacLean, Curator Emeritus. Above are, from left to right: Guenter Busch, custodian of the Art Museum, Bremen; J. Arthur MacLean, Johann Carl Luder Lauts, curator of the City Art Museum, Karlsruhe; Elizabeth Nau, scientific assistant at the Wurttemberg Landesmuseum, and Hans Vogel, Director of the State Art Collection, Kassel.

DR. T. J. HONEYMAN, Director of the Glasgow (Scotland) Art Gallery and Museums has long been an enthusiastic admirer of the educational work of the Toledo Museum of Art, especially that with children. We have had much correspondence with him on educational problems, and interesting discussions with him in Glasgow, where problems similar to ours are being met with intelligence and enthusiasm. On his recent trip to the United States he was able to observe our work in person, as we had his in the previous year.

MR. TRENCHARD COX, Director of the City Museum and Art Gallery, Birmingham, (England) visited Toledo in March, accompanied by Mrs. Cox. They are seated on the Queen Anne Settee of about 1700 recently presented by William E. Levis

DO NOT MISS IT—

Never again will there be here such an assemblage of tapestries, armour, jewels, rock crystal, bronzes, ivories and paintings.
